National Continuing Care Residents Association

Representing Your Continuing Care Retirement Community

Membership Benefits:

NaCCRA is working to ensure that regulatory and legislative officials at both the state and federal level are aware of the unique needs of those living in and served by continuing care retirement communities.

The LifeLine Newsletter is published six times a year and holds valuable information for NaCCRA members. It is the best resource to get up to date on what is happening across the nation in legislation, trends in senior living and to read editorials on continuing care retirement community issues by guest columnists.

NaCCRA members are both invited and encouraged to participate at our meetings. These meetings are held in different parts of the country and provide a great opportunity for networking with leaders from different regions.
